

'You and the Catholic Church' presents:

The Roman Catholic Church: It's Structure & History

Speakers: Rich Miklinski, Parish Member

Monday, March 8, 2010 7-8:15pm Upper Room

*“What is the Church, today? What is the structure of the Church?
What does the Bible say about the Church?”*

Ever wonder what the Roman Catholic Church is about, today, in our lives? Come join us for the first in a series of brief presentations/discussions on the Church Today. This interactive event will be a short introductory overview for adults, as part of the You and the Catholic Church series. There is no charge for this event, and the program is open to anyone as a gift to the Parish adult community. Light refreshments are served afterwards.

All adult members of the Parish, and their family/friends, are welcomed.

Come with your questions -- Come meet us -- Come home, to SMMP

You may attend one or all presentations. There is no commitment.
